

Pastor's Bio

Our pastor, Rev. Ken Cluck, has been in Christian ministry since 1995. Though Ken is originally from Texas (he grew up in the Metroplex of Dallas/Ft. Worth), he has served in various pastoral positions in several states: Montana, Idaho, Colorado, and Washington. This has exposed him to various cultures including life on two Native American Reservations (Northern Cheyenne and Nez Perce). Prior to ministry Ken served as a US Army Infantryman and Paratrooper, including time with the 2nd Infantry Division in Korea, the 9th Infantry

Division in Fort Lewis, WA and the 82nd Airborne Division at Fort Bragg, NC.

Ken's preaching is always meant to teach the Bible. His goal in ministry is to teach others to study, understand and apply the Word of God in their own life. He often refers to this as striving to replace himself, meaning that in time those exposed to good teaching should no longer need to be taught, but should be able to teach others.

Ken also stresses working together with churches from various backgrounds, dividing only where scripture demands, and seeking the unity of the body. Ken always looks for ways to bridge the divide of "Them and Us."

Ken's wife, Yong, is from Korea. They have been married for almost three decades and have three grown children. Yong loves to pray for and encourage others. She is quick to help and loves to hug.
